DRAFT REVISED POLICE ORA

The draft of the Revised Police Orders forwarded by the Commissioner of Police has been gone through . Minor corrections of a verbal or typographical nature have been carried out in pencil in the draft itself.

(2) It will be observed that the Revised Police Orders have been divided into three Parts:-

Part I - Police Orders (General).

Part II - Office Procedure

Part III - Miscellaneous Instructions, Notifications.

(3) The marginally noted portions of the Draft Orders relate mainly to accounts and matters cc with Fundamental Rules. It is submitted that of these portions only may be forwarded u.o. to Pay & Accounts Officer for favour of his rema

PART I.

P.O.No.3.

It seems doubtful whether this provision is really necessary. It appears to be a repetition of section 16 of the C.& M. Station Police Law. Th section and Police Order No.3 are practically identical in terms.

(2) P.O.No.4.

This provides that the Commissioner may punishment to all ranks under section 20".

Section 20 of the Police Law provides kinds of punishments:-

(i) Fine, suspension, reduction,

(ii) Imprisonment for three months fine not exceeding Rs.100/-

Under section 20, the Commissioner can infl punishment no.(i) but not no.(ii) which can awarded only by a Criminal Court. To make t clear in P.O.No.4, it is submitted that for words "under section 20" occuring at the words "in accordance with section 20" may be substituted.

P.O. (3) P.O.No.5.

This seems to presuppose the inclusion of of Inspectors and Sub-Inspectors of the C. in the Madras Police cadre. This question in abeyance, and it is proposed to give effec the proposal only in 1930. It is submitted th that, for the present, this Police Order may be omitted. It may be inserted in 1930 when the proposal is given effect to.

4) P.O.No.6.

For the words "as defined", the words "in accordance with" may, it is submitted, be substituted.

5) P.O.No.28.

The language of the second clause of th Order does not seem clear. The words "to be punished" may be omitted.

P.O.No.29.

This provides that appeals from the orde of the Commissioner lie to the Hon'ble in Myso

It may be noted in this connectio section 71 of the Police Law expressly pr that "Nothing in this Law shall be deemed "derogate from the general power of control "District Magistrate in respect of matte "with by this Law". This shows that orde Commissioner are always subject to the the District Magistrate, in the first It is for consideration whether this made clear in the Police Orders.

P.O.No.40.

Please see clause

For the words

(11)

P.O.No.159.

The word "alone" in the first line may, it is submitted, be omitted, because sections 496 & 497 Cr. P. Code empower a Court also to grant bail.

(12)

P.O.No.178.

The last line of this Order does not appear to be clear. Perhaps, " the communication of su "information to the Magistrate and the Commissio is meant.

P.O.No.179 (2).

This clause says that " in case of temporary "emergency the Commissioner can himself act unde "section 13 of the same Law". It may be noted however that section 13 of the Police Law presc in such cases " the sanction of the District Magistrate". This may be made clear in the Po Order.

Page 7 of P.O.

P.O.No.305.

At the end of this Order, the words nation only" may perhaps be added.

Page 8 of P.O.

P.O.No.326.

The last sentence does not appea clear. and may perhaps, be modifie indicated in pencil

(16)

P.O.No.6.

This relates to the Police Office (vide heading of the Chapter).

It is proposed that the age limit of a candidate for appointment to the superior service is 25 and that the Commissioner may accord exemption in special cases. The limit is same as in other departments of Government but it would seem that exemption from the limit may (as in other departments) be granted by the Resident o the recommendation of the Commissioner instead of by the Commissioner himself. In actual practice, it ma; make no difference but the ultimate power of exemption may vest in the Residency.

(17)

P.O.No.46-A.

This relates to statements of permanent establishments, and may perhaps come in as a separate chapter; it cannot fall under Chapter IV which relates to "Cas account and contingent expenditure".

(18)

P.O.Nos.108 & 109.

P.O.No.108 says that the kit of men on long leave (four months or more) will be kept in deposit in the stores, while No.109 says that men on leave for six months or more are not entitled to clothing for period. It does not seem clear whether a man or months' leave can take his police clothing with h while on leave.

(19)

P.O.126:

The annual administration report of the P Department is due in this office on 1st July each not 1st April. '1st July' may be substituted for '1st April'.

20

Part III.

Item XXXII - Boundaries of the Police Station ranges in the Civil and Military Station of Bangalore.

The Resident's Notification No.10, dated the 31st January 1922 which it is proposed to include in Part III has been superseded by Notification No.36 dated the 18th March 1924. The latter notification may therefore be substituted for the former.

PAY AND ACCOUNTS OFFICER'S REMARKS.

Para 59(5). Under Fundamental Rule 26(b) leave other than extraordinary leave 'counts for increments'. But as under Fundamental Rule 87, the leave salary admissible to a Government servant is based on the average pay or the pay at the time of taking leave the increments accruing during any kind of leave can have effect only on the expiry of such leave. Vide also Audit Instruction 24. The para should therefore be amended as follows:-

'(5) Increments accruing during leave of any kind can be granted only with effect from the date of expiry of such leave.'

REPLIES TO THE SECRETARY TO THE RESIDENT'S NOTES.

P.O.3. The wording of the Police law is repeated here for departmental information.

2. P.O.4. I agree with the amendment.

3. P.O.5. I agree.

5818

4. P.O.6 I agree.

5713

5. P.O.28. I agree.

6. P.O.29 I take it that the words "general power of control of the District Magistrate" refer only to matters of police administration affecting the general public, and do not refer in any way to matters of departmental discipline. In such matters the Resident is the only officer having authority over the Commissioner.

7. P.O.40. I agree.

8. P.O.83.a I think, perhaps, the draft wording might be omitted - the public cannot be bound by a departmental order and naturally no departmental prosecution could be launched without Commissioner's sanction.

9. P.O.136. These are the rules in force on this point in every jail in India; the Mysore Government could be addressed for approval, but these rules are carried out now in Bangalore Jail.

10. P.O.157. I am not aware that the usual term "Native State had been altered.

11. P.O.159. I agree.

12. P.O.178 The last six words should read "to the Magistracy and the Commissioner".

13. P.O.179 (2). The reference to Section 13 of the Police Law makes this quite clear.

14. P.O. 305 A better amendment would be "bearing the official designation only"

15. P.O. 326. May be re-drafted as follows:- "On return from duty the travelling constable will hand over his beat and note books to the Station House duty Head constable and report to that officer anything of interest or importance which occurred while he was on duty. The Station House duty Head constable will at once enter any such report in the Station House diary".

(P A R T II)

16. P.O.No.6. I agree.

17. P.O. 46.A I agree.

18. P.Os.108 109. A departmental matter which seems to have been misunderstood.

" 108 If a man goes on leave for more than four months - his uniform etc. must be deposited in Stores, to ensure that it is properly looked after and fit for use when he returns.

109. An issue of uniform is made every six months - hence if a man goes on leave for more than 6 months, he misses one (or more) issues altogether. The two police orders have no reference to each other.

19. P.O. 126. I agree.

20. Revised notification has been inserted in the draft.

15

As regards Secretary to the Resident's un-official note regarding comparison of the draft with the Hyderabad Manual:- comparison has been made by the Manager of my office and -- Chief Inspector Roberts (who made the original draft for our revised orders) and by myself. Our draft was based on Madras City Police orders and Madras mofussil Police orders with additions and alterations to suit local conditions and I do not think that we would gain by copying any of the Hyderabad orders.

S.N.10 From the Dy. Controller, Printing No. 81/1/29 dt 25.1.29

The file relates to the proposal to issue a revised set of Police Orders for the Civil and Military Station, Bangalore, inplace of the existing Police Orders which were issued in 1912, containing 238 pages. The Commissioner of Police has submitted a Draft of Revised Orders (divided into three parts).

Part I
Chap. X + XXXIII
Part II
Chap. II - IV
VI - IX

S.N.7

None of the Chapters which concern matters relating to accounts were forwarded to the Pay and Accounts Officer, and the remarks offered by him thereon were noted on, and necessary alterations have been incorporated in the Draft. The connected notes are at Flag X .

There were also other suggestions made in the office notes at Flag T and at paragraphs 44 - 59. Most of the suggestions made in the note at Flag T were accepted by the Commissioner of Police and necessary changes made in the Draft Orders.

Paras. 60 & 61

Before submitting the Draft Orders for the consideration of the Resident, it was proposed first to print them in proof form and then to take up the question of applying for the sanction of the Government of India or of any other authority to the inclusion of such provisions as may require their sanction.

8 W

The sanction of the Controller of Printing was applied for, to the printing of the Draft Orders at the Residency Press. Printing at this Press would be more convenient than printing at any other Government Press, as any doubts and difficulties which the Press may have in regard to the manuscripts could be easily settled here by oral consultations. The Deputy Controller, Printing, however, asks that the "Copy" may be sent to him for scrutiny in the first instance, and that may be accompanied by a formal requisition for printing (vide rule 11 of the Rules for Printing and Binding).

The office has edited the Draft Orders (which extends over 200 pages) as far as possible, to facilitate printing. Three points may, however, be mentioned in connection with this.

In the first place, abbreviations have been, for the present, left alone. As the whole matter is going to be printed at the Residency Press, the Press can easily ascertain from the office the meaning of any abbreviations of which they have not heard. This the Residency Press usually does.

Secondly, the paragraphs have not been re-numbered in consequence of the omission of some of them (vide e.g., Police Orders Nos.5 of Part I and No.89 of Part II). It may perhaps, be preferable to renumber all the paragraphs only after final approval of the Draft Orders, with necessary omissions and additions. The Deputy Controller, Printing may be informed that the paragraphs need not be numbered in the proof stage. While in proof, the orders may be numbered in manuscript.

Thirdly, in sending the manuscript to the Deputy Controller of Printing, those pages which are not clear enough or contain too many corrections will be retyped. After this is done and the whole matter re-arranged, the Draft Orders will be re-submitted for Secretary's perusal before they are sent to the Deputy Controller.

Office note.

The proposed Order follows the language of Section 4 of the Bangalore Police Law, 1927. This section - contains a reference to the Resident as the authority empowered to appoint the Commissioner of Police.

It is for consideration whether any such reference to the Resident is desirable, in this opening sentence of the new 'Police Orders'.

I have spoken to Comm^r of Police. Partly on understanding that proposed change (which was made in his predecessor's time). I think I may, the old paragraph should stand?

The powers of the Comm^r of Police are provided for in Sec: 3.

11.4.20

I have ~~read~~ examined the chapter. Under the new Bangalore Police Law the Honble the Resident ceases to be the Inspector-General of Police but he is, of course, the local Government.

Sl. No.	Existing.	Proposed.
		PART
1.	1. (a) The Police Force of the Civil and Military Station, Bangalore, and of those Railway lands in the Mysore State, jurisdiction over which has been ceded to the British Government, is under the direction and control of the Hon'ble the Resident of Mysore.	1. (a) The administration of the Police Force of the Civil and Military Station, Bangalore, and of the Railway lands in the Mysore State, jurisdiction over which has been ceded to the British Government, is vested in the Commissioner of Police, subject to the general control and direction of the District Magistrate.

Office note.

It seems doubtful whether this provision is really necessary. It appears to be a repetition of section 16 of the Civil and Military Station Police Law. This section and Police Order No.3 are practically identical in terms.

The Commissioner of Police is of opinion that the wording of the Police Law may be repeated in the Police Orders "for departmental information".

It may be noted however that the Police Law and the Police Orders are two distinct sets of ~~xxxxxxxxxx~~ regulations -- one framed by the Government of India and the other by the Commissioner with the sanction of the Resident. It is perhaps therefore desirable to avoid as far as possible the overlapping of provisions.

For orders whether proposed Police Order No.3 may be retained.

We may return this?

I have omitted it. It seems obvious that Police Laws issued under the Rules ~~issued~~ under the authority of the Local Govt can only be modified or added to with the sanction of the Local Govt

This is based on a proposal, which was under consideration, for the inclusion of the posts of Inspectors and Sub Inspectors of the C & M.Station in the Madras Police cadre. After some correspondence with the Madras Government, the proposal has since been dropped. This Police Order may therefore be omitted.

Resr 11-4-20

Secondly, as regards proposed Order No.29, it may be noted in this connection that Section 71 of the Police Law expressly provides that "nothing in the law shall be deemed "to derogate from the general power "of control of the District Magistrate in respect of matters dealt "with by this Law. This shows that orders of the Commissioner are always subject to the control of the - District Magistrate, in the first instance. It is for consideration whether this should be made clear in the Police Orders.

Mr. Dawson (the late Commissioner of Police) was of opinion that "the words 'general power of 'control of the District Magistrate' refer only to matters of police - administration affecting the general public, and do not refer in any way to matters of departmental discipline. In such matters the Resident is the only officer having authority over the Commissioner". Mr. Russell agreed. The view may perhaps be accepted.

The view may be accepted. But a District D.M. may see, things I for some other be into after.

Unclaimed property shall be taken charge of and disposed of in the manner laid down in Section 34 of the Police Law. Section 34 runs as follows:- "It shall be the duty of every police officer to take charge of all unclaimed property which comes to his notice, to furnish an inventory thereof to the District Magistrate, and to dispose of such property in compliance with the orders of the District Magistrate."

Office note.

This provides that "no criminal "prosecution whether launched departmentally "or at the instance of private individuals "shall be instituted against a police officer for an offence committed in his official capacity without the distinct order of the Commissioner or of a Magistrate".

So far as departmental prosecutions are concerned, this seems all right but in regard to prosecutions of police officers by private individuals, it is doubtful whether the sanction of the Commissioner or of a Magistrate should be prescribed. Perhaps the right of private individuals may be left undisturbed.

Mr. Dawson had no objection to the omission of this provision.

I doubt if any such provision is necessary - but, if it is, the original wording, substituting Comm. for Inspt., seems suitable. Comm. of Police may be asked his views?

Any "interesting" offence is rather a wide term. If any well known swindler comes to Bangalore such as "Amrak" the information is given in the Fortnightly report.
The Resident may also ask for the result of an enquiry. In practice this is so seldom done that it would seem unnecessary to have an order that it must be done.

When a crime is committed so near a boundary as to leave any doubt whatever regarding the district to which it belongs, the police to whom it is first reported shall bring the case on their register and take up the investigation, leaving the exact venue to be settled afterwards, if necessary. If the case is detected, it will, of course, be finally registered according to the limits of jurisdiction of the court by which it is tried. If the case is undetected, it will remain as first registered, unless indisputable facts should transpire to justify a transfer, which can then be arranged between the Superintendents of the two districts. It must be remembered that it is of little importance whether a crime committed close to a boundary line is registered in this or that district. What is necessary is that the police who first hear of it should take up the case with a will and endeavour to detect it.

The same principle applies to offences committed near boundaries of police circles and stations.

When a crime has been committed close to a boundary between stations and it is at first doubtful in which station limits it occurred, the police to whom it is first reported shall register the case and take up the investigation, the question which station should retain it being subsequently settled.

This clause says that "in case of "temporary emergency the Commissioner can "himself act under section 13 of the same "Law. It may be noted however that section 13 of the Police Law prescribes in such cases "the sanction of the District "Magistrate". This may perhaps be made clear in the Police Order itself.

Office note.

This relates to the Police Office (vide heading of the Chapter).

It is proposed that the age limit of a candidate for appointment to the superior service is 25 and that the Commissioner may accord exemption in spec[illegible] special cases. The limit is the same as in other departments of Government but it would seem that exemption from the limit may (as in other departments) be granted by the Resident on the - recommendation of the Commissioner instead of by the Commissioner himself. In actual practice, it may make no difference but the ultimate power of exemption may vest in the Residency.

The Commissioner of Police has agreed to this suggestion. The draft Police Order may therefore be revised as follows:-

"the Resident may grant exemption

Officers are not justified in delegating the detection of an important case to subordinate agency, while they themselves scarcely give it another anxious thought. The inferior ranks must of course be occasionally employed to follow up secretly some special clue or to trace out some offender; but as a rule, their work should be confined, to this special service. Men should never, if it can be avoided, be employed singly in plain clothes and on secret service. Two together aid and watch each other.

Police Order No.6 (h)

The proper place for providing that the Commissioner of Police is "ex-officio member of the Municipal Commission, Civil and Military Station, Bangalore" is the Bangalore Municipal Law. That law does not contain a provision to that effect. It may perhaps be sufficient to appoint the Commissioner of Police as a member of the Municipal Commission invariably as a matter of practice and not to make him a member "ex-officio".

Police Order No.7.

(i) It is for consideration whether the word "lawful" in clause (d) should be allowed to remain.

(ii) Clause (h) refers to "any other police officer of lower rank than himself". Perhaps it is unnecessary to say anything about transactions with officers of higher rank.

Police Order No.27 (5).

This says that "increments accruing during leave of any kind can be granted only with effect from the dat of expiry of such leave".

This is not strictly correct. It will be all right if, for the word "granted", the word "drawn" were substituted. The point is that, under the rules on the subject, though the increment can be drawn only from the date of return from leave, the increment is deemed to have had effect from the usual date of accrual, irrespective of the leave, that is to say, the date of accrual will not be shifted on account of the leave.

COMMISSIONER OF POLICE.

DESPATCHER

Part III Prevention of Crime, Surveillance of Criminals and Finger Prints.

Part IV Particular Duties.

Part V Particular Branches of the Department.

I have rearranged chapters in their logical order. I have also cut down the number of chapters as for some unknown reason in the old draft there were six chapters in two different sections dealing with (a) Punishments (b) Arrest and Custody and (c) Procedure in Cases. Also there were several orders which were placed in chapters dealing with subjects entirely different and these I have transferred to the appropriate chapter.

4. Chapter I has been rewritten. The "Superintendence" of a Police Force must be vested in a Local Government as the highest local authority. I have adopted the wording of the Police Act of 1861, altering "Local Government" to "The Hon'ble the Resident".

5. Chapter II is based on the Madras Police Orders so far as the District Magistrate and Commissioner are concerned. A Superintendent of Police in Madras is according to the Police Act of 1861 "under the general direction and control of the District Magistrate" just as he is under the Bangalore Police Law 1927, but a District Magistrate does not, in Madras, have anything whatever to do with the Police Department except in regard to the prevention of crime and maintenance of peace. As both District Magistrates and Commissioners of Police in Bangalore are seconded from Madras it is obvious that the Officers should work together in the manner to which they are accustomed.

6. Although the Commissioner is empowered under the Bangalore Police Law to appoint Inspectors I have inserted the proviso that the appointment should be approved of by the Hon'ble the Resident. It gives an officer, who has been passed over, an opportunity of representing his claims to the Hon'ble the Resident. He would be otherwise unable to do so.

P. O. 6 is a list of duties which the Commissioner performs besides his ordinary Police duties.

Chapter III (old chapters IX and X). I have inserted P. O. 7 (i) as it is very necessary.

P. O. 13. The second class educational test is insisted on now in Madras.

P. O. 21 (b) is new.

P. O. 23 contains the latest rules regarding reservists and supersedes P. O. 56 in the old draft.

P. O. 26 contains the latest pay scheme of constables.

Chapter IV (old chapter III)

P. O. 34 (b), (v) and (vi) have been inserted.

P. O. 35 (c) is the old P. O. 34.

P. O. 37 replaces old P. Os. 16 & 17.

P. O. 43 (d) replaces P. O. 22 (d)

Chapter V (old chapter XI).

P. O. 50 (3). It is generally recognised that a man on point duty should not salute even the Viceroy so I have ordered they should not salute, in supersession of the old P. O. 67 (3).

I have added P. O. 50 (5) (a).

Chapter VI is old chapter XII.

Chapter VII is old chapter XIII upto the end of P. O. 82 A.

Chapter VIII is made up of the old P. Os. 83 to 85.

Chapter IX is made up of old chapters VI and XIV as amended by me.

P..O. 70 is new, as are 71 and 72 (b).

P. O. 73 (1) supersedes P. O. 88 (1). Rule 88 (1) was cancelled years ago in Madras.

Chapter XXVIII is new.

Part IV.

Chapter XXIX is the old chapter XXXIII.

Chapter XXX is the old chapter XXXIV

Chapter XXXI is new up to the end of P. O. 325. P. O. 326 to 332 are old P. Os. 286 to 291. 332 is new. Old P. O. 292 ordered that men on traffic duty should salute the Hon'ble the Resident and some others. This is clearly wrong. No salutes are ever given by traffic men on traffic duty according to modern practice. P. Os. 333 and 334 are old P. Os. 293 and 295, old P. O. 294 has been omitted.

P. O. 335 is old P. O. 284 (1) amended, (2), (3) amended (5) (a) amended, (7), (8) and (9) followed by P. O. 284-A., A.1, 2, 3,4,B. D. F. (amended) G and I (amended) and J.

The remaining chapters of part IV and Part V are practically identical with the old orders except chapter XXXIX which contains the latest orders regarding railway accidents issued by the Government of India.

Book - II. In P. O. 7, I have inserted "Fidelity Bonds" as an alternative security. P. Os. 8 and 42, I have omitted the order that Special Rewards should be audited by the Hon'ble the Resident. It appears to be quite unnecessary as the budget allotment is usually about Rs. 200 per annum.

P. O. 120. I have included uniform of the Fire Brigade. The provision of jerseys for Chief Officer, Driver and 14 men requires sanction. These were supplied on the occasion of the last Viceregal visit but I think that the supply should be biennial.

I have revised P. O. 120-A completely, because we have been ordered to get clothing from the Indian Stores Department P. O. 120-B is new. The scale of handcuffs etc., is the same as in the Madras Presidency.

Other corrections are of minor nature.

PAY AND ACCOUNT OFFICER'S REMARKS. (10)

Para.59(4). An increment accrues from the day following that on which it is earned. Vide Article 151 C.S.R. There is nothing in Fundamental Rules answering to this Article. The para. may therefore be amended as 'An increment of pay will take effect from the day (not the month) following that on which it is earned.'

'A constable who has retired on an invalid or on a compensation pension and is subsequently re-employed may count his previous service for pension if he ceases to draw any part of his pension granted in respect of his former service but he shall not count such previous service for increments.'

Yes. The orders may now be printed in proof form as suggested to reduce the file to manageable compass. I have entered my remarks on the margin of the office note. I have also gone over the first 45 pages of the draft Police Orders and made immmerable alterations in pencil to bring out the sense better. The word "should" in the sense of "ought", must be studiously avoided because of its ambiguity, as it does not make it clear whether the sentence is merely advisory or is imperative. "Shall" or "must" are the proper words, the former

It is most improbable that the Controller of Printing will sanction printing a draft which is admittedly not ready for Press, to the extent of the present draft.

Please make a statement by showing all points on which the Resident's orders are wanted. It can be made by cutting up a copy of the existing orders and showing opposite in type the amended rule. Similarly any omission should be shown. Above has been explained verbally.

A separate statement of new provisions should be made.

There should be a column blank on the right in which the Resident's orders can be entered.

22.3.29

Copies available.

76

I called for this because I heard of the matter from the Comm. of Police. There can be no excuse for a clerk keeping a file like this for over a year & a quarter. Mr. Ramanathan must do this at once in his spare time, & submit within a fortnight.

7.7.30

80

Tabular statements are submitted, dealing with various points of some importance, on which the orders of the Resident are solicited. The last column of the tabular statements is left blank, so that orders may be entered there.

After orders are passed, and the necessary alterations made, steps will be taken for the printing of the Draft Police Orders. Proofs will be called for before final printing.

10.9.30

This is one of the last of those cases which have been so delayed. The matter has been dealt with and will, I hope, not recur after the reorganization which has taken place.

2. I have made certain notes in the last column of the tabular statement, which are for your approval. But this 'Police Orders' was drafted before Mr Sullivan's time and he is, I gather, not altogether satisfied at the procedure adopted for the drafting and also feels that there is some new matter, based on recent changes in Madras orders, which might advantageously be included.

The file may be sent to the Commr of Police for scrutiny. It would be convenient if he would have very much any page, which may be ~~unduly much~~ corrected, re-typed, as the draft will have to go to the Controller of Printing for sanction.

P. O. No.88 (e).

It is for consideration whether an express provision such as this is really necessary or desirable.

P. O. Nos.148 and 149.

By "foreign territory" is apparently meant any territory other than the Civil and Military Station -- whether British or not.

P. O. No.151.

After the words "any Indian State" the words "(other than Mysore)" may be inserted. There is a reciprocal arrangement as regards Mysore which does nc require the intervention of the Resident.

P. O. No.236.

It is not clear how these provisions can be made applicable to the Civil and Military Station. Some suitable amendment appears to be necessary. Perhaps Commissioner may be consulted U.O. urgently on this point.

P. O. No.254.

The correct name of item (3) is "The North-West Frontier Province" which may be used.

P. O. No.302.

"Rs.200" is obviously an error for "Rs.2,000".

P. O. No.324 (a).

It is not clear why the table does not provide for the interval between 9 p.m. and 11 p.m.

P. O. No.343 (2)

The word "are" may be inserted between "beats" and "checked".

103

Paragraph 102. 108

There are certain allowances mentioned in P.O. No.34 of Book II (page 134); and P.O.No.120 (page 157) lays down the scale of free clothing for the officers of the Police and Fire Brigade. It is submitted that it has not been examined whether the scales of allowances and of clothing are in accordance with the existing sanction. If the scales laid down in the Draft are in any case in excess of the existing sanction, the excess has to be got sanctioned by the Government of India, if it relates to a compensatory allowance or the supply of clothing.

There appears to be no other provision requiring the sanction of the Government of India or other authority.
